Belmont Dining

For a small town, Belmont has more than its share of fine restaurants and specialty food shops.

Find great bagels at Doc's bagels, fine gelato and crepes at The Crepe Shop. Donuts? Pilgrim Kitchen and Chuck's donuts (There's always a police car there so you know it's good). In the mood for a sandwich or a salad? There is Belli Deli and Lorenzo's sandwich shop. Safeway and Lunardi's markets also have good delicatessen departments that make good sandwiches and a number of other take-out items. Safeway has surprisingly good sushi, fresh daily.

For fine dining we have nearly every cuisine of the world. Two great recent additions have been ME.N.U for asian fusion and Koriander Indian Cuisine for authentic Indian food. Both are superb additions to our fine family of wonderful restaurants. Try them and review them.

Some Urban Spoon Reviews:

Godfather Burger Lounge

Excellent Burgers! We had to wait awhile to get in, but it was well worth it. The burgers are very good and the sweet potato fries are the best I've had. Spent about $37 for two of us, with sodas to drink, but I would pay that again.

The Van's Restaurant

It was the place our "Peninsula tour guide" took us to dine, and the first place we think of to take out of towners. Or to treat ourselves to a special evening. Set on a hill above El Camino Real, it offers an expansive view of the bay.

Lorenzo's Sandwich Shop

Lorenzo's is a small, family run sandwich shop (counter actually). They do one thing... Make damn good sandwiches!

Divino

We have been many times now and are always pleased. Everything on the menu is good and the service is great. I recommend highly!

Hola!

Hola is definitely in my top 3 Mexican restaurants.

Some Yelp Reviews:

Vivace Ristorante - After having the opportunity to try out many exceptional restaurants around the world, I'm happy to say that Vivace continues to be among my favorites.

ME.N.U - Great atmosphere along with service and Food. Simply a treat when ever we stop by. Keep up the great service.

Koriander Indian Cuisine - Been here about 5 times over the last 3 weeks, I can't get enough of this place. I love their butter chicken and chicken tikki masala with garlic naan.

The above photograph is the chocolate lava cake at Vicace. A beautiful treat to cap a lovely evening.
